Marcella Little, Loan Specialist, Barnesville Area Three Office

Marcella P. Little is a native of Perry, Ga where the Georgia National Fair is held annually. She currently resides in Macon, Ga as widow with her two daughters. She became a widow September 2008 when her husband of 19 years died suddenly of a heart attack at home. Time has passed and the family is doing well. The oldest daughter is named Whitney Nicole Little and she is 18 years old and currently enrolled at Fort Valley State University as a freshman. The youngest daughter is named Victoria Michelle Little and she is 16 years old and she is a junior at Westside High School in Macon, Ga.

Marcella is also a Fort Valley State University graduate, while in college she was enrolled in the Co-op Program with Natural Resource Conservation Service. She never became a full time employee with NRCS because in 1987 the agency was going through a Reduction In Force with the full time employees.

She later began her career with Rural Development and has been employed with them for 24 years. She trained in the Newnan office for six months, then she was transferred to Macon, Ga. for three years, and finally she was transferred to the Barnesville's County Office, where she resides today.

During Marcella's leisure time she enjoys shopping, cooking, sewing, bowling, reading and now dating has been added to this list. She also enjoys socializing with colleagues, especially Michal Curry who is a long-time friend. Michael and Marcella have been friends since they were 18yrs old and now Marcella will be turning 50 years old on her birthday in May. True friends will always be there forever.

Marcella's motto in life is to try and make a difference. She prefers spending her time solving problems instead of creating them.
